

The DO NOT CALL LIST must be preserved as is. To be able to have dinner with loved ones without interruption from these rude, obnoxious side show barkers is a joy. This is not an infringement of 1st amendment rights. If people want to be called by telemarketers they don't have to do anything and the endless calls will flow.